“Revolutionary love”

It’s hard to imagine any area of study that does not reflect on the topic of “love” in one form or another.

Rev Dr Jones talks about how using the term “revolutionary” next to “love” can turn our attention to love that seeks to transform the world, which includes love that both tears down and builds up. Her starting point is from the prophetic words of James Baldwin, “I use the word love here not merely in the personal sense but as a state of being, or a state of grace – not in the infantile American sense of being made happy but in the tough and universal sense of quest and daring and growth.”
