CONVENTION 2019

13—16 NOVEMBER

Friday November 15th 7:30pm
Noarlunga Centre Church of Christ
(165 Beach Road Christies Beach)

Our Speaker, Matt Bird, is an international speaker, author and broadcaster. He has spoken in 30 countries to more than a million people, authored 10 books and writes for The Times newspaper.

Matt is CEO/President of Cinnamon Network International which helps churches increase their relevance and impact in society. Cinnamon responds to invitations from countries who would like to start a network to activate and resource churches to serve and transform their communities, cities and nation www.cinnamoninternational.com

He founded Cinnamon Network UK in 2010. He led the network to identify 30 church-led community projects and support them to replicate in more than 3,000 local churches. He also pioneered the Cinnamon Faith Action Audit that has supported churches in 92 government municipalities to measure their community impact and leverage for great transformation.

Matt is also the CEO/President of Relationology International, a company that helps businesses grow by building effective client relationships. He works as a keynote motivational speaker providing inspiration, insight and impact through relationships www.relationologyinternational.com

He lives in Wimbledon, England with his wife Esther and their three children.
